STEP Learning Collaborative – Training Series

The STEP Learning Collaborative Trainings Series aims to provide support and education around best practices in early psychosis care. The target audience is Connecticut based, front-line clinicians of various disciplines working to support individuals and families impacted by early psychosis.

Provider Focused Trainings: (First Thursday of the month 12-1pm via Zoom)

Click here for Zoom Registration

February 1st – Mindmap 2.0: Launching an Early Detection Campaign Across CT

March 7th - Early Psychosis Basics - Laura Yoviene Sykes, PhD

April 4th - Early Psychosis Treatment Approaches– Laura Yoviene Sykes, PhD

May 2nd – Fostering Health and Wellness in FEP - Sarah Riley, MD & Shannon Imetovski, MPH, RN

June 6th - "Gone to Pot" the Relationships between Cannabis and Psychosis – Deepak Cyril Dsouza, MBBS, MD

⋆July 11th - Pharmacotherapy for Recent-Onset Schizophrenia – Vinod Srihari, MD

August 1st - Therapeutic Approaches for Addressing Psychosis – Laura Yoviene Sykes, PhD

September 5th - Insight – Hadar Hazan, PhD

October 3rd - The Role of Coordination – Josina James, LCSW

November 7th – Engagement Strategies for Young Adults & Families – Shannon Imetovski, MPH, RN & Laura Yoviene Sykes, PhD

December 5th - Managing Risk in FEP– Vinod Srihari, MD

⋆⋆Schedule subject to change

Registration: Please use the Zoom Registration Link to select which trainings you'd like to attend

CME/Equivalent Credits: 1.0 Yale CME / equivalent credit is available for providers

Those seeking CME/equivalent credits at STEP Learning Collaborative events need to have a Yale Cloud CME account and can register here: https://yale.cloud-cme.com

Participants will need to utilize the texting attendance at CME eligible events. A unique texting code will be provided at the end of each session. Click here for instructions on setting up text attendance.